art & apparel for your extraordinary life

total rewards: there's more to the story

There are many reasons to love being part of the Artful Home team:

- A great work environment
- A dedication to a healthy work/life balance
- An awesome group of people to work with
- A commitment to sustained company growth

And there is more to our story!

We are more than a “come to work, do your job, and get paid” organization. We take a holistic approach, offering a total benefits package meant to help our staff live well physically, emotionally, and financially. We've designed a package that offers more than just the basics—one that is flexible, comprehensive, and affordable. This package, available to all full-time regular staff (and much of it available to part-time staff), includes:

More Than a Paycheck: Financial Peace-of-Mind
